Art Unit: 2817

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

2. The incorporation of essential material in the specification by reference to a foreign application or patent, or to a publication is improper. Applicant is required to amend the disclosure to include the material incorporated by reference. The amendment must be accompanied by an affidavit or declaration executed by the applicant, or a practitioner representing the applicant, stating that the amendatory material consists of the same material incorporated by reference in the referencing application. See In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 569, 179 USPQ 157 (CCPA 1973); In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 579, 179 USPQ 163 (CCPA 1973); and In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 577, 179 USPQ 167 (CCPA 1973).

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2817

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, 6, 7, 22, 23 and 30 are rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(b.) as being clearly anticipated by Abe et al.

Abe et al disclosed a demodulation method for demodulating an FSK-modulated digital signal (Abstract: ... converts it into an FSK signal 33 with a low frequency band again, and demodulates it ...) comprising: counting the number of waves of the FSK-modulated digital signal (Abstract: ... The number of waves of the low frequency band FSK signal 133 is counted ...) in every certain time period (Abstract: ... in a time sufficiently long to a bit length ...); and judging a digital signal based on the number of waves (Abstract: ... and compared with an ideal value ...); wherein there are 2 raises to the zero power kinds of start timings; wherein the counter's capacity is sufficient to distinguish a difference between a maximum value and a minimum value counted in the counting period (It counts to the minimum and maximum values, and the two counts are inherently distinguishable from each other).

5. Claims 1, 2, 6, 7, 22, 23, 25 and 30 are rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(b.) as being clearly anticipated by Ichikawa.

Ichikawa disclosed a demodulation method for demodulating an FSK-modulated digital signal (DERWENT Abstract: title), comprising: counting the number of waves of the FSK-modulated digital signal (DERWENT Abstract: ... The demodulator uses a waveform shaping circuit to shape FSK modulate signal into square wave pulse and the same is applied to input end of a counter ...) in every certain time period (DERWENT Abstract: ... This counter is reset periodically, by a reset pulse of constant cycle characteristic ...) ; and judging a digital signal based on the number of waves (DERWENT Abstract: ... The output of the counter is fed to a comparator (5) where it is compared against a predetermined reference ...); wherein the certain time period is a bit-corresponding period corresponding to each bit of the FSK-modulated digital signal (Fig. 2); wherein there are 2 raises to the zero power kinds of start timings; wherein ... judgment means produces the digital signal by comparing the number with a threshold value that is a number of waves corresponding to the center frequency of the FSK-modulated modulated signal (JPO Abstract: ... level of a reference digital signal is set between ...); wherein the counter's capacity is sufficient to distinguish a difference between a maximum value and a minimum value counted in the counting period (It counts to the minimum and maximum values, and the two counts are inherently distinguishable from each other).

6. Claims 3-5, 8-21, 24, 26-29 and 31-32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David Mis whose telephone number is (571)272-1765. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday.
